IT IS NOW presented by ANONYMOUS IS A WOMAN THEATRE COMPANY

Imagine every wedding you've ever been to, the frantic mother of the bride, the one relative who's had a little too much to drink... only this time it's the day of the 1966 World Cup, and everyone has an ear to the radio while no one keeps an eye on the groom and his bride's best friend. Chaos ensues.

'Excavates women's stories with spirit and invention.' The Guardian

OLD HERBACEOUS presented by KICK IN THE HEAD

Described as 'Downton Abbey with gardening tips' (Surrey Advertiser), 'Old Herbaceous' is a one man play about a retired head gardener, Herbert Pinnegar, played by Giles Shenton. Set somewhere in the 70s, Herbert invites us into his greenhouse where his stories take the audience through his time growing up in the 1900s, both World Wars and his years of service to Lady Charteris, his employer and lady of the manor.

'Pitch-perfect comedy.' The Telegraph 'Timeless appeal.' The Independent 'Not to be missed.' BBC Radio Kent

NICHOLAS COLLETT AND GAVIN ROBERTSON present DONE TO DEATH BY JOVE

'The 39 Steps' meets 'An Inspector Calls' via Agatha Christie and 'Midsomer Murders'. A cast of six bring a comic flurry of suspects and characters together to discover who done what, and why. Except, well... four of the cast are stuck by the side of the road in the van, and only Gavin and Nick have managed to get to the venue... but 'the show must go on'...

Comic clichés from the Detective genre abound in this comedy spoof from the Masters of inventive silliness! It's not a new idea, it's not a new plot – it's been DONE TO DEATH, BY JOVE – but not like this! Promise.

I AIN'T AFRAID OF NO GHOST presented by LITTLE EARTHQUAKE

Do you believe in ghosts? Director and performer Gareth Nicholl's family home was haunted by a rather playful poltergeist. Doors opened, Madonna records sprang into life in the wee small hours. The final straw came when the family pack of Kit Kats disappeared. Using family heirlooms, iconic 80s toys, interviews, photographs and real-life home videos on stage, Gareth sets out to get to the bottom of this paranormal mystery. What was really going on?

***** 'Little Earthquake is a tiny company with an appetite for life's biggest questions.'
